#MoneyfactsAwards

WHAT ARE THE AWARDS ALL ABOUT?

The Moneyfacts Awards brand reliably gains coverage across the entire year, with the industry participating in the survey and entry process from January to February and the shortlists being announced via an online event in March, through to the glittering ceremony in June followed by successful organisations shouting about their success through the summer and beyond.

The awards welcome participation from major providers and intermediaries who recognise the importance and quality of these independent awards. Giving your support as a sponsor is an excellent way to raise the profile of your organisation with key people in the mortgage, savings and personal finance market.
